ARTICLE 7 ENTRIES

For Vehicle Classes see Britpart British Cross Country Championship 2019 Regulations,

The entry list opens and closes on the dates specified in Article 6.

For non-championship competitors the entry fee is £390-00 per round (two days) or £195.00 for a single day.

All entry requests must be made using the online entry system at

<https://my.thats-motorsport.com/>

and be accompanied by the entry fee and any additional (optional) payments.

The maximum entry is 40 plus 10 reserves. (This includes BXCC Registered Competitors who will be given priority)

The above fees are doubled if the entrant refuses to carry the organisers advertising.

No entry will be accepted unless accompanied by an accurately completed Entry, Commentary Information Form and Fees

All entries will be acknowledged within 14 days of receipt and confirmation of entries will be made as soon as possible. Entries are at the discretion of the organisers, and entries may be refused without any reason being given.

The entrant may freely replace the vehicle declared on the entry form by another from the same group and the same class, up to the moment of Scrutineering.

Should it turn out at the time of scrutineering that a vehicle does not correspond in its presentation to the group and/or class in which it was entered, this vehicle may, upon the recommendation of the Scrutineers, be transferred to the appropriate group and/or class upon the decision of the Clerk of the Course.

ARTICLE 8 AWARDS

General Classification:-

1 st Overall Driver	an Award
2 nd Overall Driver	an Award
3 rd Overall Driver	an Award

Class Awards:-

1st in each class (subject to six starters and Organisers' discretion) an Award

Additional awards may be given at the Organisers' discretion.

No competitor may win more than one award. (Except Additional Awards)

NOTE: All award winners MUST be present at the Awards Presentation at Rally HQ unless alternative arrangements have been agreed in advance.

To be classed as a finisher and awarded championship points at a round a competitor must competitively start a minimum of 75% of the runs on that round; this will be 'rounded down' to the nearest whole number of runs i.e. to be awarded points on a round of 15 runs: 75% = 11.25 therefore 11 competitively started runs will count.

ARTICLE 9 RESULTS

Provisional Results will be published on the Official Notice Board on Sunday as soon as possible after competition has finished. These results will become Final after 30 minutes or when the protest time has expired, or all outstanding queries and appeals have been settled.

Results will be available to all Competitors at the event; results will also be available electronically within 7 days of the event.

ARTICLE 10 GR MODIFICATIONS

All other General Regulations of Motorsport UK apply as written except for the following, which are modified:

In the event of a withdrawal of entry less than 10 days before the event, refund of entry fee is dependent on the place being filled by a reserve; at other times, at the discretion of the Organisers. In all cases an administration fee of £25.00 will be made.

To prevent damage to the service areas, all servicing must be done on a suitable ground sheet and all debris must be removed by the Competitor.

Any Competitor or his service crews who, by their actions, disregard or do not comply with an instruction of an official of the Event, or by their actions bring the event, the Organisers, Motorsport UK, or the sport into disrepute, will have their credentials and passes removed and will lose the right to any Event facilities. Any vehicle/crew so penalised will not be substituted.

The competitor may also be penalised and might be reported to Motorsport UK for further action under GR [C] 1.1.4 and [C] 1.1.9

ARTICLE 11 PACE NOTES

Pre-event practising or testing over the Special Stages on this event is forbidden.

Competitors may walk or ride bicycles or mountain bikes around the course.

There are no Subjective Route Notes and the possession of pace notes is not permitted. Information may only be transferred to the authorised maps from official bulletins or from information given out at the drivers' briefing. No other source of route information may be used to mark maps or be carried inside the vehicles during the competition; including any electronic downloads of stage information. The penalty for infringement of this regulation is disqualification.

GPS & Data Positioning Systems of any kind used for Navigation are prohibited in this Event and any associated Championships.

ARTICLE 12 INSURANCE

The entry application will only be accepted if it is accompanied by the total entry fees.

Competitors do NOT need to show Insurance, VED Tax or MOT certificates, at Signing On Competitors who are involved in an accident may be asked to pay the excess amount of any insurance claim. Motorsport UK Insurance covers People and Land; competitors are advised to seek their own vehicle insurance.

Motorsport UK Insurance cover will come into effect from the start and will cease at the end of the event or at the moment of retirement, disqualification or exclusion.

Competitors wishing to insure against the risks of personal accident during the event may do so by making application to

JLT Sport, 6 Crutched Friars, London. EC3N 2PH. Tel: 0845 337 2446 Fax: 020 7582 4500 E: msa@jltgroup.com

The promoters decline liability in any accident caused by or to competitors and the competing cars during the whole of the event. The promoters also decline any liability for breach of the laws and regulations of the UK as covered by the itinerary. Competitors shall be held responsible for any accident or breach of laws in which they may be involved and shall declare to the promoters particulars of any incident from which liability may arise and shall have no claim against the promoters arising out of any action of the promoters, their servants or officials, during the course of the Event. Entrants and competitors will be required to adhere to the Motorsport UK sign on declaration

By entering or attending this event you agree to abide by the Motorsport UK Safeguarding Policy and Guidelines.

ARTICLE 13 INTERPRETATION OF REGULATIONS

It is not the duty of any marshals to interpret regulations or any other written instruction to the competitor or to explain the meaning and/or effect thereof. It is the responsibility of the competitor to read and understand the regulations and any other written instruction.

ARTICLE 14 SOS & OK BOARDS

Please read revised wording very carefully – it is for your safety

GR [P] 49.8. Competitors must carry an A4-size white board with a red SOS on one side and black OK on the other (letters to be a minimum of 12cm high with a minimum stroke width of 1.5cm), with means to secure them on display for oncoming Competitors.

In the case of an accident where urgent medical attention is required, the red SOS sign should be displayed as quickly as possible to alert following cars and aid any helicopter attempting to assist. Any crew that sees a red SOS sign displayed on a car, or sees a major accident where both crew members are inside the car but not displaying the SOS sign, must immediately and without exception stop to give assistance. All following cars must also stop and the second car arriving at the scene must inform the next radio point. Subsequent cars must leave a clear route for emergency vehicles. The Clerk of the Course may award a discretionary time to any Competitor delayed in such circumstances.

Any crew which is able to but fails to comply with the rule will be reported to the Clerk of the Course who may impose penalties. In the case of an accident where medical intervention is not required, the OK sign must be clearly shown to following vehicles, and to any helicopter attempting to assist. If the crew leave the vehicle, the OK sign must be left clearly visible to other Competitors.

Any crew failing to comply will be subject to a penalty at the Clerk of the Course's discretion. Competitors who misuse the SOS or OK signs will be penalised and may be reported to Motorsport UK for further action.

[P49.9] Any crew retiring from an event must report such retirement to the organisers as soon as possible, except in the case of force majeure.

ARTICLE 15 ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

AMENDMENTS TO THE REGULATIONS - SUPPLEMENTS.

The provisions of the present regulations may only be amended by dated and numbered information bulletins, which will be an integral part of the present regulations.

These bulletins will be posted at Rally HQ on the official notice board and will be directly communicated to the participants, who must acknowledge receipt by signature unless this is materially impossible during the running of the event.

Competitors should always drive and conduct themselves in a manner, which shall not discredit the event or arouse adverse public opinion. Failure to do so will be penalised.

Crews are forbidden, under pain of disqualification, to deliberately block the passage of competing vehicles, or to prevent them from overtaking, or to behave in an unsporting manner.

By the very act of signing the entry form, the entrants, as well as all the crew members, submit themselves to the sporting jurisdiction specified in the International Sporting Code and the prescription of the present regulations only.

ARTICLE 16 MEDIA

SONGASPORT (GARY SIMPSON) will be the official photographer for the championship and photographs will be available to view on www.songasport.co.uk. e-mail:- songasport@gmail.com or Tel:- 01925 221753 (evenings only).
